LOVE LEARN SHINE

Shine in the light and love of God.

Friday 10 March 2023

Dear Parents

I am writing with regard to arrangements for Wednesday 15 and Thursday 16 March following the announcement of strike action by the National Education Union (NEU). These are the last planned days of action in this sequence. This dispute is between the unions and the government, and is not because of any issues at our school.

As has been the case with the previous days of recent action we intend for St Peter's School to remain open to all classes ensuring children do not miss learning as a result of this action. However, it is unlikely that these strike days will be completely typical for children. It is likely there will be cover arrangements in place for some classes but it will not be possible to publish this in advance.

Please note that if a teacher is not present during the days of action their absence may not be as a result of the action but due to other reasons such as illness.

Our Designated Safeguarding Lead remains Mr Griffiths who will be present and contactable.

I do appreciate the news of disruption will be unwelcome, and we are grateful for your understanding that we are doing all we can to manage this challenge with the least amount of disruption to our families as possible.

We hope this dispute can be resolved quickly for the benefit of children and the profession as a whole.

Best wishes

Mr Paul Griffiths – Headteacher
